Press Release

9/6/2016 – 9/12/2016

1. On 9/9 at 0948 hours received a medical emergency call in the area of Poor Farm Road for an elderly female. Emergency Services responded to assist the patient.
2. On 9/11 at 0928, 0933, 1041, 1349 and 1551 hours received several phone calls reporting trees and wires down in the areas of Second NH Turnpike South, Poor Farm Road, Russell Station Road, New Boston Road and Old county Road South. This was a result of heavy winds and rain that struck the area at approximately 0900 hours. Emergency Services responded to the areas and assisted with traffic control/detours until the public utility company (Eversource) arrived and cleared the lines.

Respectfully submitted,

Fred Douglas
Chief of Police
